REQUEST TO WITHDRAW NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. 1.181

The Applicant had sent two status inquiries to the USPTO regarding the above application (February 12, 2003 and August 11, 2003) (copies enclosed). The Applicant's attorney did not get a response from the Office in either inquiry.

On January 22, 2004, Examiner Lesley Morris, contacted the undersigned attorney to discuss the above-identified patent application. Ms. Morris indicated that the records of the USPTO showed the application abandoned in a Notice of Abandonment mailed September 29, 2003. However, the Notice was mailed to "Intellectual Property Law Office, 1901 S. Bascom Avenue, Suite 660, Campbell, California 95008." This is not the address of the undersigned attorney, who is the attorney of record.

Further, the copies of documents faxed me by Ms. Morris also show that an Office Action dated September 13, 2002, was also mailed to the wrong address.

The undersigned has advised the Applicant of this situation and the Applicant still wishes to prosecute this application. Therefore, this Applicant requests the Office to withdraw its abandonment of this application and allow the Applicant sufficient time to respond to any outstanding office action.

While the Applicant has a copy of the September 13, 2002 Office Action, the Applicant asks that another action be mailed establishing fresh response due dates.

No fee is required for this request.

Respectfully submitted,
JACKSON WALKER L.L.P.
